“ Bill, Chloe, & Jesse: I didn't know Sara very well. I remember meeting her at Firstenberg when she would come by while you worked there Bill. And when I saw her at school concerts. Chloe and my grandson Alex M are in the same class. This was a real surprise to me. Know that my prayers are with all of you and that she is now at peace and that someday we will all be together again. She is always here with you in heart, soul and memories. Never stop talking to her she will hear. I pray that God will soften the pain that you feel right now and that it will become less as time goes by. I will come by soon to see you.

“ My heart is broken for all of you. I can not imagine your pain and loss; it must feel as though the bottom has dropped out of your world. I wish I could be there with you in person to hold you, cry with you, and offer support. I would do anything in the world that I could to help ease your pain, so please do not hesitate to call upon me, even just to talk. I send my friendship, deepest sympathy, caring thoughts and love, Suzy

“ TO her children,Bill,& family, My heart hurt for all of you, when the sad news arrived that Sara is now an angel in heaven.When I think of Sara,it is her kind nature, sweet smile, sparkling eyes and gentle soul which come to mind. We had many happy times with the Stepping Stones softball team. I know you all don't know me, but, I wanted you all to know that Sara touched my life, and the lives of many others, especially, those struggling, and less fortunate than her. Sending you healing energy, MANY prayers, and love. Janesta Sullivan

“ John, Helen, Trevor, Bill, Jesse, Chloe and families--so hard to put into words the massive sense of loss and sadness I feel. The miles and years may have separated us, but Sara was always in my heart and often in my memories. On Saturday, while you say your farewells, I will be finding a way to do the same here. Please know that many prayers, many hugs and so very much love are sent to you all. May Sara have peace and eternal happiness. I loved her so much. She was and forever will be one of my BFF's.

“ It is hard to realize that Sara is gone. I am truly sorry that your family has to go through this heartache. Sara was so beautiful inside and out. She will be remembered for her caring and compassion. The world was a better place with Sara in it and she will be missed. I remember her as a child but I also remember her as a beautiful mother in love with her children. She was just such a nice person and someone that was so easy to love. Keeping your family in my prayers and know that I love you all. God Bless you and keep you safe as you journey this road of grief, it is not an easy one but I know you have a strong Faith and Love for God that will see you through each moment.

“ I am truly saddened by Sara's death. Sara was more than just a cousin; she was an amazing person. She was always so kind and considerate. Her passing will not only leave a void in our lives, but in the hearts of everyone who knew her. Sara's memory will always remain deep within my heart. If there is anything that I can do to help you in anyway, please do not hesitate to call me at anytime. You can call me to talk. I am always here for you and your family at a moment's notice. My sincere thoughts and prayers are with you.
