

Sarah Brittney Walton

August 19, 1974 - October 5, 2018

It is with extreme sadness that the family of Sarah Brittany (Mitchelson) Walton announces her untimely passing, which occurred on Oct. 4, 2018. Sarah was born in Des Moines, WA on Feb. 19, 1974.

After earning her Bachelors degree from the University of Puget Sound, she moved to Seattle where she worked in marketing and sales for KIRO TV and Real Networks. She relocated to Vancouver, WA in 2005 with her husband and daughter.

Sarah enjoyed spending time with her family and friends. She loved being outdoors and could often be found walking, hiking, camping or exploring the Puget Sound on her family's boat.

Sarah had a passion for reading, that eventually drove her to try her hand in writing. She wrote her first book, Not Enough, and had it published in 2007. She also wrote an article in the sailing magazine 48 (degrees) North, A Father's Lessons.

Above all, though, Sarah's favorite passion was the raising of her beautiful daughter, Hannah May.

Sarah is survived by her daughter, Hannah May Mitchelson; parents, Bill and Penny Walton; sister, Julia Walton Freiling; nephews, Parks and Charlie Freilinger, Gavin Gregory, Benjamin Reems; and niece, Megan Reems. Sarah will also be deeply missed by a countless number of friends, many of whom, she considered family.

There will be a Celebration of Life for Sarah at First United Methodist Church, 401 E. 33rd St., Vancouver, WA 98663 on Sat., Nov. 10th at 2:00 p.m.
