

Sergey Sergeyevich Bocharov

July 21, 1998 - March 14, 2019

On Thursday, March 14th, 2019, Sergey Bocharov, beloved son, brother, grandson and friend passed away suddenly at the age of 20. Serge will be forever remembered and loved by his parents Sergey and Olga Bocharov, by his brothers and sisters Anton and Sarah, Natalya, and Kristina, and grandma Raisa Bocharov.

Serge was born in Russia on July 21st, 1998, he was the third child. Migrating to America in November 2000, he became a US Citizen in 2007. He was a very active, curious, and adventurous guy. He had a very positive outlook on life. From the age of 14, he started to work for the family business, and was taught about hard work from an early age. He was always finding ways to work smarter, not harder.

He was attending welding classes at Mt. Hood Community College and was about to graduate. He was constantly talking about welding and different projects that he was undertaking. One of his memorable accomplishments was his Chevy S10 truck that he rebuild from the ground up with his Dad. Other projects he was passionate about where his Resin Dining Table, his Solar Power battery charger, his Stock Market Trading app, his Youtube bike vlogging videos, and his Bitcoin mining computer project.

Serge Bocharov was a fun loving guy, when entering a room he would always try to crack a joke, making everyone laugh and smile. He enjoyed all things in life, especially going to the Gym and any outdoor activities. Being the best at everything he set his mind to. Serge will be remembered as a funny, loving, caring, gentle man.

Serge, we all dearly love you and will miss you very much.

Tribute Wall

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

EMCO Technologies - March 20, 2019 at 12:00 AM