

Sharon D. Ball

May 19, 1943 - February 28, 2026

Sharon D. Ball, 82, of Brush Prairie, Washington, passed away on February 28, 2026, with her children by her side. She was born in Portland, Oregon. Sharon spent many years working in the restaurant industry before concluding her career with the Washington State Department of Labor & Industries. Throughout her life, she was known for her love of people. Sharon had a special gift for drawing others in, lifting them up, and making them feel valued and cared for. Her family meant the world to her. She was a proud and devoted grandmother who loved her family deeply. Her faith in Christ remained strong throughout her life and was a guiding presence for her and those who knew her. Sharon loved gardening and could often be found enjoying the outdoors. She was a true sunshine worshiper who found joy in warm days and time spent outside. Her dogs meant the world to her as well. She was preceded in death by her beloved dog Ronnie and leaves behind her faithful companion Mia.

Sharon is survived by her children, Wendy J. Falls and her husband, Carl K. Falls, and Eugene

M. Kuhn; her grandchildren, Vanessa L. Kuhn, Carl K. Kuhn-Falls, Dominique J. Falls, and Paris

Peterson; and her great-grandson, Amari J. Shank. She was preceded in death by her parents and seven siblings.

A memorial service will be held at 12:30 p.m. on March 20, 2026, at Evergreen Memorial

Gardens in Vancouver, Washington. Friends and family are invited to attend and celebrate Sharon's life.

Sharon will be remembered for her warmth, kindness, strong faith, and the way she made everyone around her feel welcome and loved. She will be deeply missed by all who knew her.
