“ Sheri and I spent a lot of time together thru High School and College. Sometimes we spent every waking moment together. I have so very many fond memories of her. Sheri was the kindest, most generous and happiest person I will ever know! I'm sorry we lost touch these last few years, only talking on facebook but she will forever be in my heart!!! Please let her family know how deeply saddened I am for their loss. And keep in touch. I am searching for photos and videos of us and would like to share them with the family. With Love, Jacque

“ Jesus Christ was a perfect man who had strong faith in God. Yet, he gave way to tears over the death of his dear friend Lazarus. (John 11:35) So dont be afraid to let your tears flow. It does not mean that you lack faith.
