Shireen Marie Wager

October 12, 1951 – April 13, 2026

Shireen Wager, 74, of Vancouver Washington, passed away peacefully at home on April 13, 2026. Born in Seattle, Washington, she lived a life defined by love, family, and devotion to those she held dear.

Shireen was the beloved wife of David Wager, the love of her life for over 51 years. She enjoyed a successful career as an Office Manager in Portland before choosing to focus on her life's most important work: raising three active boys. She was a cherished mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother whose quick wit and warm heart touched everyone around her.

She had a rare and precious gift: the ability to make anyone feel that what mattered to them, mattered to her. No detail was too small, no story too ordinary to deserve her full attention and care. Conversations with Shireen were a joy and a comfort to her loved ones.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Morgan Redington and Viola Coy. She is survived by her husband, David; her sons, Justin (Fawn), Brad (Jessicah), and Ryan (Brittany); stepdaughter, Cindy Gunderson (Dave); her brother, Bill Redington (Bobbie); 14 grandchildren; and 6 great-grandchildren.

A Remembrance will be announced at a future date.
