

Shirley Cook Lenzie

September 22, 1929 - October 25, 2012

SHIRLEY (COOK) LENZIE September 22, 1929 ~ October 25, 2012 Shirley Lenzie, 83, resident of Vancouver, WA for over 58 years, passed away on Oct. 25, 2012. She was born Sept. 22, 1929 to parents, William and Betty Cook in Portland, OR, where she graduated from Commerce High School. Soon after graduation, she met the love of her life, Don Lenzie. They married in 1950 and had three daughters. Shirley spent most of her adult years as a secretary, working for Blue Cross Ins. Agency, The Columbian, PayLess Drug, Tumpane Co. and Bonneville Power/Ross Complex, from where she retired in 1994. Shirley enjoyed many hobbies and activities, including reading, bowling, sewing, playing cards, ballroom dancing, and boating with her family. She was known to have a quick wit and a sharp mind. Over the years, she and Don took many cruises to exotic places. They traveled to Tahiti, Mexico, Europe, the Caribbean, Panama Canal, Alaska, Indonesia and Australia, to name just a few. In her retirement, Shirley found time to volunteer for the SWMC Auxiliary, Slocum House Theater (where she acted in some plays) and the Dolphin Yacht Club. Shirley is survived by her husband of 62 years, Don; and their daughters, Lois (Karl) Hoffman, Donna (Paul) Hargrave and Sherri (Doug) Foerster. She loved spending time with her grandchildren, Barent Hoffman, Lindsey (Hoffman) Hanley, Adam Hargrave, Danae (Hargrave) Kizer, and Tyler Foerster; and she also has five beautiful great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her grandson, Brandon Foerster. Her Celebration of Life service will be held on Sat., Nov. 3rd at 12:30 p.m. at the
