“ I met Shirley at the Vancouver Bridge Club and looked forward to playing against her. We shared a love of reading and a background in governmental accounting. Shirley was funny, forgiving, and a very sharp bridge player. She will be missed.

“ I met Shirley at the Vancouver Bridge Club and as a partner she was the best. As a friend, she was amazing. Always kind, thoughtful and full of humour. NEVER an unkind word but laughter was her signature. She was a pure winner. K. Vasks

“ when i knew that shirley's regular bridge partner was going to be unavailable for some months, i jumped at the chance to be able to play with her. i looked forward to our games and shirley's all-accepting personality. she always told me to have fun and that it was human to make mistakes. she never judged or criticized or was mean-spirited in any way. she was a very positive and affirming partner for the short time i was privileged to have known her. i miss her and will keep her in my heart.

“ My life is richer from knowing Shirley. I met her almost two years ago via the bridge club. There is no doubt that she was a wonderful player. However, it was her kind spirit, infectious giggle and warm sense of humor that we found so endearing. Her passing has left all of us with a heavy heart. She will be greatly missed.

“ My Aunt Shirley was the best. Her spirit was amazing, her laughter was contagious, her Buttermilk pie was to die for, and her competitiveness in card games was a force to be reckoned with. She had a long full wonderful life and we will miss her greatly. My husband Terry and I send our deepest condolences to her children, grandchildren and surviving brother Uncle Kinney her sisters, Aunt Wilma and my mom, Marjorie. God Bless and keep you forever in our hearts.
