

Stanley L. Jones, Sr

May 9, 1939 - January 28, 2021

Stanley Lawrence Jones,(Pug) age 81, of Vancouver, WA passed this life on Thursday, January 28th,2021 at Community Home Health Hospice Center with his family members by his side, located at Salmon Creek, WA of cancer.

Born in Anaconda, MT to parents, Russell Jones and Rose Martha (Larivee) Jones. He was raised on a ranch west of Anaconda with his six siblings. Stanley attended Catholic Schools in Anaconda, MT and in his early years worked for the B&P railroads in Anaconda and Butte, MT.

Stanley met and fell in love with a Vivacious woman, Pauline Grace Hammer, whom he married in 1958.They were blessed with two children, Stanley Jr. Jones and Barbara Jones(Armstrong).

Stanley began his own body shop with his brother Abraham Jones in the Tri-cities, WA. Painting and body work on cars and trucks. Then later moving to Portland, OR and working for Portland Wire and Iron as a welder. He then moved his family to Vancouver, WA. He worked in his own shop as a body and paint man. He was a true car guy, especially his pink mercury car that had "Love Bug" stickers on the doors. Making many trips to Montana with his family and showing off his special car. He was so happy to show his Dad the first -4 track player he had in the car and they listened to songs for hours . Stan always loved to laugh and he was known as a jokester. Later years he would make his trips in his Ford Vans to Montana to visit family and friends. Stanley always traveled with his favorite schnauzer dog that was a real companion to him. Stanley was happy to serve his family his famous waffles and pancakes served with real whipping cream and strawberries. Stanley loved sharing birthday parties and Christmas with his children.

Stanley was so proud to be married to his wife, Pauline whom celebrated marriage of 61 years. Pauline took care of Stanley full-time up until just a few days before his passing.

Sometimes the road of life seems long as we travel through the years And, with a heart that's broken and eyes brimful of tears. We falter in our weariness and sink beside the way. But God leans down and whispers, "Child, there'll be another day"- And the road will grow much smoother and much easier to face. So do not be disheartened=This is just a "RESTING PLACE." -Helen Steiner Rice

Stanley was preceded in death by his parents, Russell and Rose Martha Jones, his sisters, Violet West, Rose Marie Jones, Isabelle Surina, Carolyn Moore. brothers, Russell J. Jones (Casey) and Abraham Jones. He is survived by his wife, Pauline Jones, his son Stanley Jr. Jones, his daughter, Barbara Jones, (Armstrong), three grandchildren, two great grandchildren. Many nieces and nephews, family and friends. Stanley will always be in our hearts and he will be remembered.

“ I remember you with found memories of you throwing a blanket over me after I had fallen asleep and caring me over your shoulder and putting me to bed. I remember you with found memories of all your corny jocks and unique sense of humor. I remember you with found memories of your thoughtfulness and generosity. But most of all I remember you for being my Dad.

“ Grandpa, I will miss you so much. My fondest memory of you is that you would play this game with me and my friends for hours where you would sick Bart on us. If you know grandpa you'd know he loved his schnauzers, Bart was very protective over grandpa so when we would sit on his lap Bart would get jealous and grandpa would say "sick em" and we would run all over the house until Bart got us and we would do it all over again for hours and grandpa would never get tired of it. He loved it. We loved it. I would spend every other weekend with grandma and grandpa and would get the most amazing breakfast from grandpa every morning I was there pancakes with apples or blueberries in them or waffles whatever we wanted oh and the homemade whip cream just AMAZING. Grandma had this trick where she would add the jam to the whip cream and it was so good on the waffles. We would honestly eat until we we're sick they we're so good. My grandparents were the best role models I ever had. They taught me so much that I'll never forget. I love your so much grandpa and you'll always hold a very special place in my heart for all of eternity. Xoxoxo

“ Our deepest sympathy to Aunt Pauline, Stan Jnr, Barb and family in the sad loss of Uncle Stan. We were so saddened to hear the news. My family and I have such awesome memories of a wonderful uncle and a great man. When we would visit from Australia, Stan and Pauline would always open their home to us. We would wake up to the smell of Uncle Stan's famous pancakes. Stan always made our kids feel so very special too. They were even allowed to sit with him on the riding lawnmower. The passing of Uncle Stan is sadly the end of a generation. Even though everyone has now gone, none will be forgotten. Rest in peace Uncle Stan. We will miss you. Love from Scott, Janine, Laura and Matthew in Australia
