

Stanley R. Wisch

March 2, 1938 - November 9, 2009

Stanley Ray Wisch of Vancouver, WA passed away peacefully on November 9, 2009 with his family at his side at the age of 71. He was born on March 2, 1938 in Chinook, MT to Ruth and Eldor Wisch. When the U & I Sugar Factory closed in Chinook his family moved to Moses Lake, WA where his father worked at the plant there. Stan graduated from Moses Lake High School in 1956. Stan began his career in banking in Moses Lake working for Peoples National Bank where he met his wife Phyllis. They were married February 3, 1962. After they were married they moved to Seattle, WA where their children were born. Stan held many positions within the banking industry. He was a Teller, Operations Officer, Auditor, Loan Officer, Manager, Regional Credit Manager, and Assistant Vice President. He was also a past Kiwanis and Rotary President. In 1974 banking brought the family to Vancouver and they have considered Vancouver to be their home although he and Phyllis spent many of their years living throughout the Pacific Northwest. "Stan was a devoted and loving husband, father, grandfather, and friend. All who loved and knew him will miss him." Stan is survived by his daughter, Janet (Todd) Hamilton; son, Thomas (Rene) Wisch; grandchildren, Alex and Spencer Hamilton, Morgan, Andrew, and Abbie Wisch; and brother, Larry Wisch. He was preceded in death by his wife of 46 years, Phyllis L. Wisch; and his parents, Ruth and Eldor Wisch.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 09:20 PM