“*I will always treasure the deep talks we had, as teenagers, sitting in the pickup truck, in the driveway, on Kadota Street. I just wish I could have spent time with you, while you were still living. You were a very special person, and you will always remain in my heart. Love,
Your cousin, Elaine*

“Our hearts are saddened hearing of the loss of our dear brother. We will always treasure the summers he and Clifford came to the Cole Farm and helped with the milking, hay hauling, and other chores. They were great buddies to my brothers. Many tricks were played on their city friends. So thankful the Lord called him to spread the good news of the Gospel. He has fought the good fight, finished his course with victory, and now will have his crown of righteousness awaiting him. May the dear Lord bless and comfort his dear family who will miss him so very much.
