

Stephen Michael King

April 13, 1950 - March 30, 2017

STEPHEN MICHAEL KING April 13, 1950 ~ March 30, 2017 Stephen Michael King, 66, of Vancouver, WA, was born unto eternal life on March 30, 2017 after a battle with pancreatic cancer. Son of Valora H. Davis and Newton A. King, Steve grew up in a family of four brothers and one sister. He graduated from Estacada High School in 1968. Steve put himself through Portland State University and graduated in 1973 with a B.S. in Engineering and Applied Science. A successful mechanical engineer, he enjoyed a long career as project manager for grocery distribution centers and food processing facilities all over the country and truly enjoyed his work with ESI Constructors where he made lifelong friends. Steve's love for reading, history, travel, fishing and hunting were contagious. Even more than his professional and personal accomplishments, he was most proud of his loving family. A lifelong Lutheran Christian, he lived his faith and taught his family about grace and forgiveness in Jesus Christ. Steve will be greatly missed by his wife, Sharon King; his daughters and their spouses, Michael and Victoria Pottschmidt (ne King), Nichole Lizotte, Kristal Delquadri, Rhonda and Dave Brown, and Daralyn Anderson; grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Services will be held Thurs., April 6th at 1p.m. at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Vancouver, WA. A private burial service will occur later at Tahoma Cemetery in Yakima, WA.
