

Susan Ann Dorn-Hodgins

September 11, 1944 - February 4, 2019

Susie Dorn-Hodgins was born Susan Ann Hatcher on September 11, 1944 to parents Lee Judson and Evelyn Lorine Hatcher.

Susie worked in the banking industry for over 40 years, working in various clerical and administrative positions in her early years of employment. In 1988 she transferred to Vancouver, Washington to be a senior underwriter for Bank of America's Mortgage Lending Unit in Hillsboro, Oregon, where she remained until she retired in 2006. She moved to North Bonneville, Washington in May of 2009 with her husband Brian where she was always fascinated and amazed by the beauty that the Gorge had to offer. In her retirement years Susie loved being outdoors, hiking, bike riding and gardening along with playing golf and bowling. She was also very active in community and church activities. She loved people and was always looking for ways to do special little things for them. Susie is survived by her husband Brian, sister Sharon, brother Lee, niece Lori, stepson Garrick, stepdaughter Jamie, granddaughter Kayla and , of course, her little dog Holly.

Tribute Wall

JA

“"Susannah" was standing on the front of the island out to sea looking [the Atlantic] in "jumping-jack" stance S C R E A M I N G her lungs O U T !!!!! [me] Susie....what's wrong ??? it was 8AM !!! [she] IT IS SOOOOOOOO quiet here""""""!!!! not like in the bank...E V E R Y D A Y !!! [me] NOT NOW after ya woke the death Mike & "Bubba" & me !!!!!" this was in '71 when she & Lonnie (my bro) came home to So Caro [John's Isl] on vaca.

jan - December 04, 2023 at 12:00 AM