

Susan L. Kirkaldie

November 26, 1957 - July 19, 2009

Susan Louise Kirkaldie Nov 26, 1957 ~ July 19, 2009 Susan went to the Lord on July 19th after a two and a half year courageous battle against pancreatic cancer. Her will, determination and positive attitude was an inspiration to many. She was known for her loving compassion to all and her great sense of humor. Susan made many efforts helping others with cancer and was well known and loved by her support group at Crossroads Community Church in Vancouver. Susan always placed her priority to her family first. She was much admired and respected by her family, friends and especially her children and their friends. She excelled at art, creating hand made greeting cards and using the proceeds to buy books for cancer patients or street-survival packages for the Portland Rescue Mission. Susan is survived by her children Karlie and Robert Kirkaldie, husband Walter Kirkaldie, sister Julie Center and mother Marjorie Pfeifer. She was preceded in death by her father Robert Pfeifer. A Celebration of Life will be held Friday, July 24th at 3pm at Crossroads Community Church in Vancouver WA, 7708 NE 78th Street Vancouver, WA 98662 Contributions in Susan's name can to be made to the Pancreatic Cancer Action Network (pancan.org) or to Crossroads Community Church in Vancouver WA.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 07:32 PM