

Susan Joy Moffat

April 13, 1964 - November 8, 2011

SUSAN JOY (COLLETT) MOFFAT April 13, 1964 ~ November 8, 2011 Susan Joy was born on April 13, 1964 in Portland, OR and went to her Heavenly home on November 8, 2011. She lived a life full of joy. She was an amazing daughter, mother and devoted wife to husband Steven and daughters Jessica-26, Janelle-20, Holly-13 and parents Sheila Hale and Jeffrey Collett. She forever changed the lives of everyone who had the privilege of knowing her. Her unconditional love, gentle kindness, sweet smile and goofy sense of humor will never be forgotten. Her brown eyes will forever smile in our hearts. We love you, Mama. You're our best! A celebration of Sue's life will be held at Evergreen Memorial Gardens on Saturday, November 12, 2011. You are welcome to join the family at 12:30. Please wear pink in honor of Sue as that was her favorite color. Memorial donations in Sue's memory can be made to the National Luekemia Foundation or Prince of Peace Lutheran Church in Battle Ground, WA.

“ I am truly saddened by Sue's death. Sue and I met in Kindergarten and graduated High School together. She was an amazing person and I have a lot of fond memories growing up together. She was always so kind and considerate to others. Sue and I connected again about a year ago on Facebook, I am sad that we never got together like we had planned. Sues passing will leave a void in the lives, of all who knew her. My thoughts and prayers are with her family at this difficult time. May your memories bring you comfort.
