

Tamera "Tammy" Jean Wilson

September 7, 1964 - July 6, 2023

Tammy Jean Wilson passed away in Vancouver Washington, July 6th, 2023, losing her 4 year battle with cancer. She was born September 7, 1964 in Portland Oregon, to parents Bonnie Maple and Gary Mucken. Tammy is survived by the love of her life, her husband of 40 years, Randy Wilson, her mother Bonnie Maple, sister Brenda Mucken, aunt Shirley Bocci, nieces Candace and Amber, cousins Ben and Melinda, as well as her last two dogs, Sophie and Bella. Tammy was preceded in death by her father Gary Mucken and older sister Debbie Wagner.

Tammy worked almost continuously since age 14, where she spent 19 years at Bonded Credit Co. and then the next 15 years or so at Mill Plain Chiropractic and NW Speech Therapy. Tammy enjoyed helping the patients and building lasting relationships with many. Tammy enjoyed a lifetime full of dogs and horses and spending time on their 5 acres.

Tammy is a born again Christian and had a deep and ever growing faith in her Lord, Jesus Christ. She is now face to face with him, and in his presence. We look forward to meeting again.

A memorial service for Tammy will be held Friday August 11th, at 11:00AM, at Immanuel Lutheran Church, 7810 SE 15th Ave, Portland, Or.

In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to: Childrenshealthdefense.org, Thehealthyamerican.org, liveaction.org.

“ *My Sweet Titter,
As acceptance becomes more of my new reality.....know that I would give anything to have you here, of course in your healthy form. I will forever miss your face and more so, your voice. But I've realized that acceptance is a necessity for those left behind....without it, we would descend into madness. So, I might not be posting anymore messages here. I shall have to see if guilt brings me back. I will continue to speak to you in my mind and my heart. Now I'm getting all puddly.
I love you.*

“ Hi Titter,

*Had a full plate and quite honestly have had nothing to say. I love you so much. Still heartbroken that you are gone.....but I think perhaps I am entering a numb phase....is this what acceptance feels like? I don't know. I sure hope that if it is, you will always know that it doesn't diminish the massive amount of love that i have for you, nor does it mean that the void has been filled. NOT EVEN CLOSE!
Don't know that to even be possible.*

*Hugs,

“ Hi Titter,
You have been heavily on my mind. More so than usual I think because I have been spending time with Boonie, which pulls in additional thoughts of you. It doesn't help that she is in Battle Ground, so just being near your home, which now belongs to another family, makes my heart break just a little bit more.

Miss and love you Titter.

“ Tammy had a warmth that drew everyone to her. She was caring, selfless, and truthful.

In a lot of ways Tammy was a maternal figure in my life. She helped guide me when I was struggling with any situation. Whether it be a listening ear, sending me scripture, making me laugh when I needed a smile, or being my conscience when I was in the wrong. Through her words she helped reignite my faith as a new mother and fight the battles to raise children of God. She will be remembered with fondness until we are reunited. I love you Chickie.

“ I am truly sorry for the loss of your dear Wife Tammy. She was an incredibly compassionate person who always made everyone feel like family in her home. Her willingness to help in times of need and her dedication to her political beliefs are testaments to her character. Her great love for animals especially her dogs is a testament to her kind heart. She will be deeply missed and forever cherished in our hearts. May her memory bring you comfort during this difficult time.

God bless you Tammy . We love you and know exactly where you are. With the Lord 🙏

“ It's been three weeks since my beautiful sister Tammy passed away and it has taken me that long to try to put into words what she meant to me and to convey the devastating heartbreak that I feel. Tammy was my earthly rock and comfort, and she was the one that I wanted to laugh with cry with, and just go through life's daily monotony with. I struggle daily, trying to fathom life without her existence here on earth. I know that I am not alone in that sentiment. Tammy meant so much to so many people. Her strength, kindness, reliability, conviction in her beliefs, moral fiber, patriotic spirit, and steadfast Christian faith are to be admired. I don't want to forget her sense of humor. We were blessed to think all the same things were funny. I will love her and miss her all the days of my life. I want to close with what her final birthday card to me said: so lucky we were born to be sisters so grateful we grew up to be friends, celebrating everything you mean to me. Rest in peace, my sweet Titter.

“ I was Tammy's 7th and 8th grade typing teacher, when she was a student at Sellwood Middle School. She was an outstanding student; always so positive and happy. Tammy's beautiful smile, lite up a room. We stayed in contact all thru the years. We both loved our Morgan horses. I will really miss Tammy. The connection we had was very special. Bobby Kniskern

“ Since I live in NYC , I miss way too many family memories. Though our face-to- face meetings were few and far between, Tammy kept in touch by sending e-mails from time to time. Most reflected her wonderful sense of humor, - others- her concern for social, health or religious issues. Once I acquired my first "smart " phone in 2012 , I saved Tammy's e-mails, Today, I opened my phone and reviewed those e-mails. Most brought a smile and a happy thought. Thoughts of Tammy will always be with me.

“ Some Words About Tammy Wilson

I've been struggling to find the right words to honor our departed friend, sister, aunt, wife. Usually my words flow freely, but these keep sticking in my throat.

Tammy and Randy were gracious enough to open their home to me when I needed a place to stay, twenty-two long years ago. What had been planned for a few months turned into fourteen years. I was a handy man (sort of), chauffeur, gardener, and horse stall cleaner, But mostly I was a problematic pest who left dings and coffee spills on their pristine carpet. But they put up with me.

Tammy's heart was golden and huge, full of encouragement. She and Randy helped sick, injured, and abandoned animals, people in need. There wasn't anything she wouldn't do for anyone who was short on funds or short on life.

When I met Tammy and Randy, I was a very pessimistic man, having come from a broken marriage, living in a distant city I couldn't wait to leave. Through her shining personality, wacky sense of humor, and her strong faith in Christ, she showed me how to see the half-empty glass as one that was full of opportunities.

Though I am proficient in the use of computers and the internet, I brought many questions to Tammy. Her dogged efforts proved invaluable. For many of us, she was the go-to source for health issues, debt questions, legal problems, you name it.

There is so much more I could say about the anchor to many, the glue that held friends and family together, but I'm limited on words and space.

Tammy may be absent from our presence, but she is not gone; she's in Heaven, where she belongs. I will see my friend again one day.

*By now, Jesus has told her those golden words we all long to hear:
"Well done, my good and faithful servant, enter into your rest."
Tammy is in Paradise, her well-deserved resting place.*

I miss my friend and long to be there.
