

Tammie Lynn Mills

July 30, 1973 - December 14, 2015

Tammie Lynn Mills passed away on 12/14/15 with her family at her side at Legacy Hospital Vancouver, WA. She was born on 7/30/73 in Vancouver, WA. to Steven Mills and Linda Mae Mills (Trammell). She resided in the Vancouver area where she went to Elementary School and moved to the Kent area in 1987 with her family where she graduated from Kent Meridian High School in 1992. In 2006 they moved to Toledo, WA. in anticipation of her father's retirement in 2007 where they resided at the time of her passing. Some of her favorite pastimes were to go camping with family and friends, shopping and traveling with her niece, Brittnee along the west coast on US 101. One of her most recent trips they travel with an Aunt all along 101 from the northern Oregon border to LA where 101 stops. This summer we will complete the trip that Tammie and Brittnee had planned for this summer, completing the Washington leg of US 101. She is survived by her father, Steven Mills, brother Todd Mills and his wife Sandra Mills, nieces Brionna and Brittnee and nephew Jordan. She was preceded in death by her Mother, Linda Mills, grandfather Harold Trammell, grandmother, Lillie Trammell, grandfather Robert Mills and grandmother Anna Mills. She will be laid to rest at the Evergreen Memorial Gardens, 1101 NE 112th Ave, Vancouver, WA 98684 on Dec 28th, 1:00p, Graveside services will be held with Hospitality Room after. “ You weren't just my best friend. You were and always will be my sister. I keep thinking about all the silly things we did as kids, like come up with ways to annoy Todd. I will forever miss you and think of you often.
