

Tamra M. McAuliff

January 28, 1961 - September 13, 2010

Tamra Marie McAuliff passed away after a difficult battle with cancer. Born on January 28, 1961 in Marysville, CA. Tamra grew up and worked in Yuba City, CA, moved to Vancouver, WA in 1985 with Dennis McAuliff, her best friend, sweetheart and husband of 29 years. They were married in May of 1981 at St. Isidore's Church in Yuba City, CA. Surviving is her husband, Dennis McAuliff; loving mother, Darlene Houston; James Keeney (father); Todd and his wife Arlene Keeney (brother and sister-in-law); nieces, Tonya, Christina, Jessica Keeney; and nephews, Shane and Tyler Keeney; her mother-in-law, Louise McAuliff; the large McAuliff family of eleven siblings; along with 57 nieces and nephews and numerous aunts and uncles in CA, IL and TX. Proceeded in death by Terrell Robert Keeney (brother); Caleb Keeney, Charles and Minnie Keeney, George and Marie Ross (grandparents); Edward Joseph McAuliff (father-in-law); and her beloved pets, Chandon, Lani, Deigo, and Tootsie. Tamra and Dennis were truly blessed and Dennis would like to give a special thanks to all the friends and family, the staff at OHSU and SW Medical, who were extremely supportive through all the good times and difficult times. Tamra with her wonderful spirit, adventurous nature, always extremely generous, and positive loving attitude will be deeply missed more than words can describe.
