

Teddy Ray Davis

August 18, 1936 - March 10, 2023

Teddy Ray Davis was born in Gainesville, TX, on Aug. 18, 1936. After relocating with his family to Vancouver, WA, Ted attended schools in the Vancouver School District including Mcloughlin Jr., and Vancouver High schools excelling in both basketball and baseball, receiving several awards for both and eventually becoming a standout college and semi-pro athlete. Ted, a renowned coach for area youth who went on to play professional baseball and basketball, also scouted for the Baltimore Orioles as well as several colleges. Ted was preceded in death by his parents, James and Madeline; and brothers, Bobby and James E. He is survived by his sister-in-law, Dorothy Davis; nephew, Terence (Jennifer) Davis; Niece, Marla (Jerome) Sampson; great niece and nephew, Talia and Isaiah Sampson; and many dear friends. A celebration of life will be held Thursday, March 30th at the Vancouver Artillery Barracks, 600 Hatheway Rd., Vancouver, WA 98661 beginning at 12:00 p.m.
