“ Terri was my cousin. She was a beautiful and loving person and her family loved her very much. I'm sad for my uncle, her father and my cousins, her children and grand children and her husband but I'm happy for her because she's in such a better place right beside her mama. We'll miss you, Terri.

“ I am so sorry for the loss of your beautiful wife, mother, grandmother. My deepest prayers are with you. My best memory of her is when Aunt Marilyn was sick and Terri was staying with her. I walked into the house and Aunt Marilyn was in her chair and Terri was sitting on a footstool next to her, lovingly holding her hand and talking so gently to her. What love. Then there was the time on the Lansing Rivertrail. But Nancy can tell you about that. Love you all.
