

Terry D. McClure

September 12, 1953 - July 11, 2025

Terry Donald McClure, 71, passed away on July 11, 2025, in Vancouver, Washington. Born on September 12, 1953, in Lebanon, Oregon, Terry lived a full and vibrant life marked by his boundless energy, hands-on ingenuity, and deep love for his family.

Terry shared over 53 years of marriage with his devoted wife, Tracy McClure. Together they built a life rooted in love and resilience. He was a proud father to his daughter Robyn McClure and a cherished grandfather to Brody, Ayden, and Alivia. His family was the heart of his world.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Dixie and Donald McClure.

Known for his outgoing nature and magnetic personality, Terry never met a stranger. He had an innate ability to connect with people from all walks of life and left lasting impressions wherever he went. A true lover of classic cars, he found joy in restoring vintage vehicles and sharing that passion with others.

Terry was a jack of all trades—there was truly nothing he couldn't do, fix, or build. Whether it was repairing something around the house or helping someone else tackle a project, he approached every task with confidence and skill. His resourcefulness and can-do spirit were admired by all who knew him.

Terry's legacy lives on through the memories he created with those closest to him. May his memory bring comfort to those who knew and loved him.

“ My dad showed up with this 31 Ford Model A when I was about 8 years old. It was his everything. He loved that car. Broke his heart when he had to sell it a few years ago. I'd give anything to find it and be able to afford to buy it back. It was the only thing my Dad was going to pass on to me when he passed. It's all that is left of him. I just hope whoever has it, love it as much as he did. One day I hope to find it and buy it back. 💔😭

hello Robyn, this is your cousin Stephanie. I'm really sorry to hear about your father. I've lost touch with him years back and I looked for him on the internet and found nothing until this morning. I'm so sorry that I was too late. your father was a wonderful man, a wonderful Uncle. I have many fond memories of going over to Grandma and Grandpa's house and him being there with this funny jokes. his warm hugs and he loved his parents so very much! he was the apple of their eye. they were very proud of the man that he became the father that he became and that eventually a grandfather 🥺 again, I'm so very sorry about your loss. feel free to reach out to me if you wish. you can text or call me. my phone number is 503 -995 -6214. God bless you all! give your mother a hug for me. please giant hug for you and your family.
