

Terry Lee Rodgers

September 21, 1948 - November 1, 2016

Terry Lee Rodgers, beloved husband, brother, father, grandfather, great grandfather and friend passed away unexpectedly on Tuesday, November 1, 2016 at his home in Vancouver, WA. He was born September 21, 1948 in York, NE to Ralph and Ella Rodgers, the youngest of three children. The family moved to Newton Kansas when he was young. Terry graduated from Newton High School in 1967. Terry's military service in the US Army was one tour of duty in Viet Nam. He was a lifetime member of the VFW. After being honorably discharged from the Army, Terry lived in Newton, KS with his family. He lived in Newton until 1977 when he moved to Vancouver, WA for the first time. In 1984, Terry returned to the Midwest, to Overland Park, KS where he married Julia in October of 1985. In 1998, they moved from Overland Park to Vancouver, WA where they have resided ever since. Since retiring in 2004 from Nautilus where he was the warehouse supervisor, he enjoyed hunting in the fall and added catching (and smoking) salmon to his list of things he enjoyed. One of his greatest joys in retirement was being available to take care of the grandchildren whenever needed. A lifelong fan of the Kansas City Chiefs (and the Seahawks), he always enjoyed watching the games! Terry was predeceased by his parents and his brother Rolland (Rome) Rodgers. Survivors include his wife of 31 years, Julia, sister Sheryal Teater, three daughters Lori, Penny and Kyann, their sisters Amy and Rhonda as well as six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. Donations to Hospice Southwest, 5400 MacArthur Blvd, Vancouver, WA 98661 are appreciated in lieu of flowers.
