Thomas was born in Lakeland, Florida. His favorite school subjects were music and history. He was a longtime member of the boy scouts, enjoyed Star Wars, blockbuster action films and puzzles. Family time would be hiking forest trails, camping, swimming, backyard Barbeques, and jumping on a huge trampoline. Later, family game night became card games of gin rummy and kings corner with snacks for all.

Thomas was a die hard fan of 80's rock music and his favorite tv shows were NCIS and WWE Wrestling. Nintendo's Super Mario Bros introduced him to video games and he was hooked. His bedroom was the typical man cave with a big screen tv, electronic systems everywhere and a fridge with cold drinks and snacks. Thomas loved football. His favorite NFL team was the Los Angeles Chargers and his favorite college team was the Oregon Ducks.

Thomas loved being an uncle and helped with caring for his 3 neices and 2 nephews when he could. He worked as an employee for Round Table Pizza, US Post Office, Multnomas Greyhound Park, Deseret Industries Thrift Store, and Johnson Creek Fred Meyer.

Thomas's family is at peace knowing he has joined his older brother Richard and his father Tom in heaven without his pain or earthly limitations. He was the best example of what a son and brother can be.
