TODD J. MOSER

January 27, 1961 ~ September 5, 2021

Todd J. Moser, 60, of Vancouver, WA, passed away peacefully Sept. 5, 2021. He was born Jan. 27, 1961 to Bob Moser (deceased) and Mary Lou Moser of Vancouver.

Todd grew up on 45th street where he made lifelong friends.

Being a father and grandfather was one of the most important parts of Todd's life, a role that gave him great pride and joy.

Todd skillfully managed his landscape company, "The Grounds Keeper, Inc," for 29 years. He valued each and everyone of his employees.

Todd had a zest for living, a robust sense of humor; with a signature infectious head-back laugh. He had an imposing and welcome presence with a contagious smile, and a twinkle in his eye. When he was 40, he conveyed to his mom, "I love every day of my life!"

One of his biggest accomplishments was winning the Oregon body building championship in 1985 where he was awarded, "Mr. Oregon."

In his spare time he enjoyed working out, fishing, boating, car shows, taking day trips, good food and music and his timeshare in Cabo. Most of all he loved the Lord and spending time with his family and friends. He fully expressed joy, appreciation, and enthusiasm for the people and moments in his life.

Todd is survived by his children, Lindsey Lavios (Adam), and Zachary Moser; his four grandchildren; his mother, Mary Lou Moser; and his siblings, Lori Buntin and Mike Moser.

A celebration of his life will be held at 12 p.m., Sept. 16, 2021, at Summit View Westside Church, 11718 NW 31st Ave. Vancouver, WA 98685.
