

Tom Bilic

February 8, 1941 - June 27, 2022

Tomislav (Tom) Bilic was born in Sarajevo, Yugoslavia on February 8, 1941 and passed on to be with the Lord on June 27, 2022. Tom fled from Communist-ruled Yugoslavia at the age of 17 to live the American dream. During this journey, he met his wife, Delia in Italy before embarking on the United States.

Tom & Delia founded the airport shuttle/charter bus service Blue Star Transportation in 1977. He continued to work and run his fleet sales company after retirement.

Tom was an active member of the Bosnian community and worked to bring refugees to the United States during the conflict in Yugoslavia in the early 1990s. Many families started their American story in the Bilic household as guests of Tom & Delia. These families are now proud American citizens because of his works.

Tom is survived by his wife, Delia, his daughter, Carmen, his sons, Michael and Anthony, three grandchildren and two great grandchildren. Services to be held at Evergreen Memorial Gardens on July 9, 2022 between 11:30 a.m. & 1:30 p.m. (official service starts at 12:30 p.m.)
