“ I remember meeting Torrie when he was a scout in my fathers troop many many moons ago, (80's). I believe I had met his two older brothers Sean, and Shane previously at Bruce and Nancy Siepacks house. It wasn't until I moved back to Vancouver in 2008 that I realized we were neighbors. Torrie was always a gentle, and helpful soul. He often would knock on my door and bum a cigarette, and we would chat. I often saw him in the parking lot of our condo's, watching over his Grandson, or making sure kids got off the school bus safely. He was a sweet kid, always offered up a warm smile. Most certainly a shocking suprise. Dang it Torrie, I would have loaned you my jack and stands!! Going to miss you lots, and sorry we couldn't hit an Ozzy concert together. I know I'll see you again, hanging out with Jesus, God bless. Peace and love.
