

Travis Aaron Holliday

February 6, 1978 - January 25, 2017

TRAVIS AARON HOLLIDAY February 6, 1978 ~ January 25, 2017 Travis passed on January 25th, 2017 due to complications from diabetes, with his family by his side. He was born in Fullerton, California on February 6, 1978 and moved with his family to Vancouver, Washington in 1982, where he spent the rest of his years. He was a cook at the family restaurant, Carol's Corner Cafe, where his love for cooking shined through. His ultimate passion, however, was cars and trucks, from fixing them to racing them. From the time he could walk, he always had "the need for speed". Travis is survived by: Susan Holliday, his mother (Woodland); Roy Holliday, his father (Lincoln City); Sonya Donaldson, his sister (Vancouver); Shannon Holliday, his sister (Vancouver); and his children, Alexandra Holliday, daughter (Camas) and Dakota Holliday son (Vancouver). A service will be held at Evergreen Memorial Gardens February 6th, 2017 at 3:00 p.m. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the American Diabetes Association Please sign Travis's Guest Book at www.columbian.com/obits.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 06:16 PM

RD

“ My heart goes out to the many loved ones Travis left behind. My best friend, truly special in so many ways. I will cherish the memories and in my heart they will stay. May his wonderful soul rest in peace. 🙏💔

Rayetta Dvorak - January 28, 2017 at 12:00 AM

VS

“ Words can't express my deepest sympathy's to the family of Travis..the world lost an amazing man,son,dad,brother,uncle,cousin,and friend. U will be missed dearly and NEVER forgotten..Rest easy my friend.i love u Trav!! <3
,*

Vicki senn - January 28, 2017 at 12:00 AM