

Travis Michael Humbyrd

February 12, 1988 - December 29, 2009

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

NH

“ I believe this is the young man I met in Kuwait on my way to Iraq in December of 2007, I met him in a chow hall line, and talked with him because our names were spelled the same, not many peoples names are spelled like ours, he said his mother married into the Humbyrd family, I am originally from Ava, MO. I am 6 ft tall and he was taller than me, I was wondering if it was the same person, God bless and sorry for your loss.

Nathan D. Humbyrd - April 01, 2012 at 12:00 AM

BS

“ To Travis' family: We, of the Home of the Brave Quilt Project, are so sorry for the loss of your son. We are making a memorial quilt for you in Travis' memory. Please contact me about a way this quilt can be delivered to you. We think of the families of our Fallen Heroes every day and honor the service of their loved ones.

Barb Shillinger - October 20, 2010 at 12:00 AM

TS

“ I served side by side with Humbyrd in Iraq 07 - 09. It has and always will be an honor to have known someone as humble as he was. Thank you for everything Humbyrd. My prayers are with you and your family.

Timothy Striegel - January 17, 2010 at 12:00 AM

SJ

“ SPC Humbyrd will truly be missed. He was a great soldier. His family will always be in my prays. It is hard to lose a fellow soldier especially one that you spent 15 months tour with. I would like the family to know that I am deeply sorry for there lost.

SFC Sutherland, Joseph - January 13, 2010 at 12:00 AM

AC

“ Travis.. You are larger than life and always will be. I can honestly say that your passing is the hardest thing I have ever had to endure, you are not only my nephew but you are like a son . You lived life to the fullest and made the most of every situation you were in, I so admire you for that. The song by Tim McGraw " Live like you are dying" fits how you lived your life, that's a lesson we all need to learn from you. I love and miss you so much.. Aunt Chris xoxoxoxo

Aunt Chris - January 08, 2010 at 12:00 AM

TS

“ Travis you're forever missed brother. we had some great times through the years. I'll see you down the road my friend. -Tristen

Tristen L Schreck - January 08, 2010 at 12:00 AM

SC

“ Our deepest condolences to the Humbyrd 'Ohana! He will be truly missed and remembered by the 2/11 FA 'Ohana as we were like family. He was my soldier and I was in charge of him amongst others while we were in Iraq. He did a job well done and all should be very PROUD during his time of war. Our thoughts and prayers goes out to Humbyrd as he is now at Peace with the Lord! He will never be forgotten!

SFC Durazo, Ryan & Charleann - January 06, 2010 at 12:00 AM

TR

“ i have so many awesome memories of travis. he was an amazing person with a huge heart and i am going to miss him so very much....

trisha - January 04, 2010 at 12:00 AM

JR

“ Travis you were like a brother to me. every day after work it would b me and u. weather we went to hang out with a bunch of friends, watch movies, listen to music, or just simply go on a hike up the trails. you were the closest thing to a family member that i had out there. and u always b considered a brother to me. RIP Travis M. Humbyrd. you will b missed by alot of people.

josh ross - January 04, 2010 at 12:00 AM

SN

“ Travis every time we fire your section m777 howitzer you will be in our thoughts everything from your smile to even your laugh u will b missed your brothers from charlie and all of 2-11 miss u alot

Spc Owens Nathan - January 04, 2010 at 12:00 AM

AL

“ Travis always lived life in the fast lane... a never-ending fountain of energy. He worked hard, played hard, and influenced all who met him. I hold many memories of him - from babysitting him when he was 3 to watching him jump into the pool up at the campgrounds. I know his life was far too short for anyone - however, he lived every day to the fullest. He always had somewhere to go, some place to see, somthing to do. I am thankful for the time I had with him. He has new marching orders - travel in peace cousin! Aaron

Aaron Logan - January 04, 2010 at 12:00 AM

CC

“ I am very sorry for your loss.. travis is loved many.. he will never be forgotten

chelsea crumlich - December 30, 2009 at 12:00 AM