TRYSTAN BAILEY PETERS December 25, 1998 ~ June 8, 2015 Trystan Bailey Peters had a unique capacity to love. He shared his love with his mother, father, sister and the rest of his family. He died unexpectedly June 8, 2015 at 16 years of age. We all love and miss him. Trystan was a sophomore at Mountain View High School and also attended Clark College where he took Japanese language courses. Trystan loved to play his guitar and do silly things to make us smile. In his presence you knew he cared. He planned on spending his senior year of high school in Japan as an exchange student. He is survived by his father Dave Peters of Portland, Oregon, his mother, Kaarin Peters and sister, Chloe Peters of Vancouver, Washington. He is also survived by his great grandmothers, Barbara Howell of Mercer Island, Washington and Dorthea Jorgensen of Vancouver, grandparents, Deane and Bob Green and Tom and Lisa Peters of Vancouver and John and Jan Bohrnsen of Woodland. “ This was so upsetting. I too have suicidal twins that go to the same school. This keeps happening and Somehow our children need to have real help that just doesnt seem to come from the counselors, psychiatrist', drs,etc. Every parent that goes thru this tradgedy and sufferers of severe depression will always have my support if needed.
