“Vance was an honorable and influential man who made a positive and lasting mark on those who knew him. My memories date back over 50 years and remember him for his bravery, service to country and his fellow man. My own father aside, Vance was my first Hero figure. Having devoted himself to National service at a dangerous and divisive era in our country's history. My brother Rick Carter, sister Nancy Thomas, and I will forever remember Uncle Vance for his honor and positive impact his life made on us from an early age. RIP, Vance. We will miss you but will never forget you. Our condolences and prayers go out to his immediate family, with a special offer of support to his son Brett who, I am sure, Vance would be most proud. Jim & Dorothy Carter, Rick Carter and his family, and Nancy Thomas -- Nephews and Nieces of a great man.
