

Velma Lois Hatcher

February 14, 1922 - July 13, 2010

February 14, 1922 ~ July 13, 2010 Val was the eldest child born to Roy and Bethel Harm in Ellendale, North Dakota. In high school she met the love of her life, Charles Hatcher and they were married in 1942. She loved being a wife, mother and homemaker. Val was known as a woman of prayer and will be remembered by family and friends as a sweet, gentle woman who lived a life of faith and shared her love for Jesus with everyone around her. She was a Bible Study Fellowship leader for many years and started the Power Line prayer network at her church, Laurelwood Baptist. Val was preceded in death by her devoted husband, Charlie, November 28, 2001; and her younger brother, Milton Harm. She is survived by her adoring children, Gary Hatcher (wife Dana Welch) of Vancouver, Patricia Knipper (husband Rod) of Yakima, Craig Hatcher (wife Lisa) of Maple Valley, WA, and Cheryl Dutro (husband Don) of Beaverton, OR; also her brother, Everett Harm of Vancouver; sister, Bette Durham of North Dakota; and sister, Bethel Reisdorph of Colorado. Val was also blessed with fourteen grandchildren and twenty-one great-grandchildren! A memorial service celebrating her life will be held on Saturday, July 24th, 2010 at 3:00 p.m. at Laurelwood Baptist Church in Vancouver, WA. Contributions in lieu of flowers may be made to Pregnancy Resource Center.
