“ I am so saddened by this news. I tried for years to get in touch with Uncle Vernon. I was either given the wrong phone numbers. I tried to reach out this year to Roger and his wife via their web site but had no success. I loved Uncle Vernon. He was good man and he and Aunt Vera were so special to Angie and me, and our kids. My son Christian died last year at 26 and he loved his Uncle Vernon. I am sure he is with him and enjoying the stories about him and my dad working at Rockwell. I know your pain. God bless you.. robertlmitchell@cox.net
