

Vincent J. Keller Jr.

September 6, 1935 - October 15, 2024

Vincent J. Keller Jr. passed away October 15, 2024 in Vancouver WA. He was 89 years old.

Vincent (Vince) was born to Vincent J. Keller Sr. and Amy Myers on September 26, 1935 in Yakima WA. One of five children, Vince is preceded in death by both parents as well as sisters Rosemary (Worthington), Mary Ann (St. Mars) and brothers Daniel and Patrick.

Vince was the beloved and devoted husband of 68 years to Sylvia (Gallegos) Keller, married at Saint Paul's Cathedral in Yakima where they were raised across the street from one another. Vince and Sylvia raised three children: Theresa (Scott) Adolf of Wenatchee WA, Katherine (Ron) Fuller of Vancouver WA and Vincent J. (Wendy) Keller III of Glendora CA. Additionally, Vince was the proud Grandfather to six grandchildren and Great Grandfather to three granddaughters.

A devout Catholic, his family and faith were the most important aspects of his life. For over thirty years, Vince was an active member of the Knights of Columbus and participated in supporting the St. Vincent DePaul Food Bank and Yakima Greenway Foundation.

A hard working family man, Vince often worked multiple jobs and long hours. Throughout his working years, he was employed with Boise Cascade and Biles- Coleman lumber mills, Boise Cascade Building Supply, Penguin Building Supply and Standard Paint of Yakima among other occupations. Vince retired from the West Valley School District #208 as a custodian in the mid-2000's.

Vince and Sylvia retired to Vancouver WA to be closer to family soon thereafter. He will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him.
