“ Praising God for the 80 years of my Uncle Gil (1940-2020). We waited for 3 years to hold the memorial service but God's timing is perfect! One of the most generous person (along with my Auntie Bernie) I know who thought of others more than himself. I remembered him as a little girl and grateful to the Lord that I was able to spend time with him during the last 4 years of his life! ❤️🙏

“ 80 years of a life well-lived. I've always known Manong Virgil to be one of the most peaceful one. Always with a smile! I was at the bedside few minutes after he was gone. He looked so content. Not a single frown in his face. Manong Virgil, your happy disposition will be missed and your memories will remain. May you now Rest In Peace. 🙏
