

Wanda Nadine Taylor

July 19, 1930 - February 5, 2019

Wanda Nadine Taylor, age 88, died peacefully on Tues., Feb. 5, 2019, in the caring home of Guardian Angels One, in Vancouver, WA. Born in Pleasanton, KS on July 19, 1930, Wanda was the youngest of 4 children including Nina, Cliff and Bettie. Wanda moved to Vancouver as a teen, and attended Ogden Meadows High School. She was in the school play when she met the love of her life, James Emerson Taylor. Shortly after graduation in 1948, James joined the Navy. They married on Dec. 19, 1948 and James was deployed shortly thereafter. Wanda lived for a time in a trailer on base at Port Hueneme, CA. She later managed shipping and receiving for the Tumpane Company in Vancouver. In 1954, their first child, Coleen Marie was born, followed by their second daughter, Penny Jo in 1960. Wanda continued to work as a secretary in different fields while her children grew up, lastly being the Office Manager for Jack Hall Realty and Nesburg Development. After retirement, she enjoyed golfing, gardening, attending CrossRoads Community Church, getting together for lunch on the first Thursday with her class of '48 high school "girls" and spending time with her 5 grandchildren, Brandon, Jennifer, Courtney, Jacob and Danielle; and eventually 6 great-grandchildren, Timothy, Regan, Andrew, Owen, Brielle and Addison.

The service will be held at Evergreen Memorial Gardens at 6 p.m. on Sat., Feb. 9th, 2019.
