

Webster Ford Hoke

October 25, 1924 - June 20, 2023

WEBSTER FORD HOKE October 25, 1924 ~ June 20, 2023

Ford Hoke was born in Butte, MT. His mother was on a train and made an unexpected stop in Butte to give birth to him. They proceeded on to Ellensburg, WA, where he grew up with his parents and his sister. In WWII, Ford served for 3 years in the Army Air Corps, including time on Shemya Island, Alaska. Ford married Alice Gunderson on Dec. 22, 1948. They had four children, Heather, Lori, Kim and Brad. Ford had seven grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. He was very devoted to his family. Ford was a longtime administrator in Vancouver Public Schools. He was a joy to all. He will be deeply missed by family and friends.

“ I remember staying overnight at the Hokes home, my best friend Lori's dad. He was up early the next morning happily making breakfast for the family. Pancakes! I'd never seen a "Dad" doing that. He always had a smile on his face and always spoke to me. One of the good ones 😊. Thinking of you all.
