

William Frank Emerson, III

March 25, 1952 - October 31, 2023

William Frank Emerson III (Bill) was a kind and gentle soul with a lively unique sense of humor. He loved the outdoors, especially canoeing. He was preceded in death by his father, Willam Frank Emerson Jr., and his mother Laura Emerson, and his former wife Beth. The great loves in his life were his two children Jessica Martinez (husband Gavino and children Sierra and Gabe), and Benjamin Emerson (wife Autumn and daughter Ellie). He is also survived by his sister Carol Emerson.

He will be loved and remembered forever by his family and friends.

“ My parents were good friends with Dr. William and Laura Emerson of Vancouver WA for many years. Bill Jr. and I played Little League baseball on the "Chargers" during the summer of 1961. Bill subsequently went on to Hudson Bay H.S. and graduated in 1970. Bill was always a friendly person, good humor and laid back. I always intended to visit him after he moved to Amboy but never got it done. Too late now, Bill has passed the Rainbow Ridge.
