

William H. Kay

May 20, 1940 - July 9, 2022

William "Bill" Henry Kay, age 82, went to be with his Lord and Savior on Saturday, July 9, 2022 in Vancouver, WA. Bill was the second of three children born to Clifford and Eleanor (Norris) Kay in Bellingham, WA on May 20, 1940. He spent his younger years in Sedro Woolley, WA, and graduated from Sedro Woolley High School in 1958. There Bill met his wife of 60 years, Vivian Ramey. They were married on September 9, 1961 in Sedro Woolley, WA. They settled and raised their family in Seattle, WA. Bill had a career as a letter carrier for the Postal Service until he retired in 1995. After retirement they relocated to Kelso, WA where they built a new home. They moved to an adult foster care home in Vancouver, WA in 2021 when they needed more care. Throughout his life Bill was an avid model train enthusiast. He was involved in model train organizations and loved to watch and ride steam trains. Bill was preceded in death by his parents; stepfather Charles Walker; brother Gary Kay and Sister Karen Walker. He is survived by his wife; his daughter Anita Dwyer (Shawn) of Silverton, OR; grandchildren Matthew Dwyer; David Dwyer; and Heather Ortiz-Shepherd (Reid). A private family service was held. Arrangements by Evergreen Memorial Gardens, Vancouver, WA.
