“ Grandpa,

You were a constant presence in our lives and in our children's lives. We loved you so much and you are so incredibly missed. I loved your witty humor and the grin you would get when you were being mischievous.

At nearly every family holiday or event we could find you here in this very chair, smiling, enjoying the moments, talking politics and probably praying there wouldn't be a half hour of picture time. Haha! Until we meet again, love you and miss you ♡
