Yvonne Adams quietly passed away at the age of 86 on October 22nd, 2022. She was born May 3, 1936 in Bremerton, Washington to Alvah and Milton Pate. After living in many locations in Washington, Oregon and California Yvonne finally settled in Anacortes, Washington where she met and married her husband Donald on September 6th 1955. Yvonne was an avid fisherwoman who could be found at either her favorite fishing hole on Swift Creek Reservoir, along the Columbia River, or on the Colorado River in Parker, Arizona where they enjoyed snowbirding in winter. “ We spent a lot of are time fishing and camping. The best memory I had was when the elk sat on the hood of the VW on the way home from fishing at Swith creek.

“ My Mom not only loved to fish but she loved animals, One time she brought home a kitten (My Dad wasn't exactly the cat type) She said she found it in a box on the side of the road, Later on we found out that the box on the side of the road was on a porch with a sign "Free Kittens" 🐱 That was so like Mom... We Love and Miss You..
