

Zelma E. Fletcher

August 27, 1917 - March 25, 2010

Zelma Eva Ostheimer Fletcher was born in Ames, Iowa, August 27, 1917. She died in Vancouver, Washington by natural causes, March 25, 2010. Zelma attended St. John Lutheran Church. She was a volunteer for Braille, F.I.S.H. of Vancouver, and taught Sunday school. She enjoyed gardening. Zelma was a dedicated mother and grandmother. She is survived by her children, Eugene Fletcher and Janet Lurtsema of Anderson, CA and a sister, Ina Ringlen of Spirit Lake, IA; six grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren. Donations may be made in her name to MOST Ministries, <http://www.mostministries.org/>

Tribute Wall

KW

“ Zelma has been a dear friend and inspiration for many years. We will miss her advice, her sense of humor and her reaching out to so many of us. "Shalom dear friend... we love you." Ken and Lori

Ken & Lori Woerle - March 27, 2010 at 12:00 AM